- 3 The Standard Risk Measure is a 1-7 scale based on the estimated number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period.
- 4 The minimum suggested timeframe is an estimate of how long you should expect to hold your capital in an investment option within this category in order to achieve its expected investment return outcome.

Appropriateness of target market

The KeyInvest Life Events Bond (including its key attributes) is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the class of customers in the target market. This has been determined based on an analysis of the KeyInvest Life Events Bond including its key terms, features and attributes and a conclusion that these are consistent with the identified class of consumers.

Individual customers will need to consider whether the KeyInvest Life Events Bond meets their specific objectives, financial situation and needs.

Distribution channels and conditions

Distribution channel	Distribution conditions/Restrictions
Direct retail (in person, KI website or email contact) through KeyInvest's client services team via a paper application form.	Sale is permitted under general advice only.
Through financial advisers via an online portal or paper application form.	The financial adviser must be registered with KeyInvest through a financial services licensee that has agreed to and signed a KeyInvest Service Agreement.

Irrespective of the channel of distribution, this product can only be offered and/or issued in accordance with the relevant product terms and conditions outlined in the PDS (as amended from time to time).

KeyInvest considers that the distribution conditions are appropriate and will assist distribution in being directed towards the target market for whom the product has been designed. This has been determined based on a detailed assessment of the distribution conditions and the target market.

Review triggers

Where KeyInvest determines that one of the below review triggers has occurred, KeyInvest must cease all retail product distribution conduct (except for “excluded conduct”) in relation to the product within 10 days and undertake a review of this TMD:

- Occurrence of a significant dealing(s) outside of the TMD that would reasonably suggest that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- A significant or unexpectedly high number of complaints (as defined in section 994A(1) of the Corporations Act) regarding product design, product availability or any distribution conditions from distributors and customers, where KeyInvest considers this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- Material changes to key product attributes, terms and/or conditions and product performance where KeyInvest considers this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- The use of Product Intervention Powers, orders or directions concerning the distribution of this product from ASIC;
- Distribution conditions found to be inadequate in ensuring that the product is issued to a retail client who are likely to be in the target market;
- Significant breach event relating to the design or distribution of this product where KeyInvest considers that this would reasonably suggest that (i) the product is unsuitable for a particular cohort of customers and (ii) the TMD may no longer be appropriate; and
- Changes to legislation have come into effect, which materially impacts upon the design or distribution of the product and reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate.

Periodic review schedule

Review periods	Maximum period for review
Initial review (post 5 Oct 2021)	1 year and 3 months*
Subsequent review (post initial review)	3 years and 3 months*

* The review period allows for the collection of data for 1 year/3 years, plus three months for the completion of the review.

 Changes made to the TMD post initial review are reflected in the TMD v2.0 (this Version).

Distributor information reporting and monitoring

KeyInvest third party distributors who are regulated persons are required to collect, keep and report to KeyInvest on the following information concerning this TMD:

Information		Provider	Reporting frequency
Customer Complaints	Written details of Customer Complaints (as defined in section 994A (1) of the Act) where the nature of the complaints relates to product design, product availability and distribution conditions. The distributor should provide all the content as well as the substance of the complaint, having regard to privacy laws. KeyInvest may request additional information from the distributor to further understand the underlying complaint issue.	All Distributors	Quarterly *
Significant dealing	Written details of significant dealings relating to the product that is inconsistent with the TMD under s994F (6) of the Act including the date (or range of dates) on which significant dealing occurred, the reason why the distributor considers the dealing to be significant (including why it is inconsistent with the TMD) and how the dealing was identified.	All Distributors	As soon as practicable, but no later than 10 business days after the distributor becomes aware of the significant dealing.
Dealings outside the target market	To the extent a distributor is aware of dealings outside the target market, these should be reported to KeyInvest, including reason why acquisition is outside of the target market, and whether the acquisition occurred under personal advice.	All Distributors	Quarterly *

* Quarterly reporting is due 10 business days after the end of the March, June, September and December quarters.
